

Name		Date
------	--	------	--

1. Describe your disability in clear concise terms:

2. Describe how your disability may affect your postsecondary education or job training efforts:

3. What accommodations, if any, will you need in college or in the workforce? (Think about what structures or services were put in place in school to help you perform on the same level as the rest of your classmates).

4. John applies for a job.

John wants a job after school to earn money to buy his first car. He goes to a local sub-shop and asks for an application. He has trouble completing the job application because of his learning disability in reading. He asks if the application could be read to him. The personnel director says, "No, you must complete the application on your own."

Your reaction:

5. Tyrell enrolls in a class.

Tyrell has a learning disability. He is a freshman in college and is required to take a writing course. His disability makes it very difficult to complete his writing assignments on time. When he discloses his disability to the professor, the professor suggests he withdraw from the class.

Your reaction:
