Course Description

The course consists of several online modules with descriptions of each below. Modules are self-paced and include handouts and quizzes to check for understanding.

Module 1: Response to Intervention (RtI) Overview

Module 1 provides a basic framework for Response to Intervention, reviews the essential components of RtI, and sets the stage for implementation by introducing implementation science.

Module 2: Comprehensive Assessment System

Module 2 details the assessment components included in RtI and provides resources to support the cycle of work within assessment.

Module 3: Tiered Interventions

Module 3 defines and explains tier 2 and tier 3 interventions through the lens of what factors need to be considered when building a model for intervention.

Module 4: Intervention Design I– Elementary/Secondary

Module 4 explores the aspects of successful instruction for secondary students in reading and math.

Module 5: Intervention Design II – Elementary/Secondary

Module 5 expands upon the aspects of successful instruction for elementary students in reading and math to include specific tier 2 and tier 3 strategies and research.

Module 6: Family and Community Involvement

Module 6 discusses the parent’s role in RtI and the research behind the importance of parent involvement.

Module 7: Progress Monitoring

Module 7 teaches the process for data based decision making using progress monitoring data and how to understand graphic data representations.

Module 8: Leadership

Module 8 outlines how to create and lead a Response to Intervention team to support the creation of an effective system.

Module 9: Implementation Cycles within RTI

Module 9 reviews the process of implementation with specific guidance on when and how to begin creating a Response to Intervention System. This module requires that a RtI Leadership team be created so that the work of building a system can begin.

University of Idaho Learning Outcomes

1. Learn and integrate

Through independent learning and collaborative study, attain, use, and develop knowledge in the arts, humanities, sciences, and social sciences, with disciplinary specialization and the ability to integrate information across disciplines.

2. Think and create

Use multiple thinking strategies to examine real-world issues, explore creative avenues of expression, solve problems, and make consequential decisions.

3. Communicate

Acquire, articulate, create and convey intended meaning using verbal and non-verbal methods of communication that demonstrate respect and understanding in a complex society.

4. Clarify purpose and perspective

Explore one's life purpose and meaning through transformational experiences that foster an understanding of self, relationships, and diverse global perspectives.

5. Practice citizenship

Apply principles of ethical leadership, collaborative engagement, socially responsible behavior, respect for diversity in an interdependent world, and a service-oriented commitment to advance and sustain local and global communities.

Specific Course Objectives Related to Above Learning Outcomes:

At the conclusion of this course, participants will:

- Determine strengths in current educational structures for providing tiered interventions for all students
- Determine areas to improve in the systemic implementation of Response to Intervention (RTI)
- Describe the tiers of RTI to and increase buy-in from parents and families in education settings
- Incorporate school-parent-community partnership strategies into a family involvement action plan
- Identify and understand the purpose, focus, decision-making rules, and goal setting needs of progress monitoring
- Understand and develop a cycle of work implementation that follows a continuous improvement process of assessing implementation, analyzing data, designing a plan, and revising the plan based on data for implementation of an RTI framework

Graduate Credit Course Requirements

1. Participation: Participants are required to complete all modules, including handouts and quizzes.
2. Quizzes: All quizzes must be submitted through the online course at the Idaho Training Clearinghouse LMS.
3. Surveys: Participants are required to complete a satisfaction survey after modules 1-8 and an overall course satisfaction survey after module 9.
4. Final assignment: A written assignment (requirements listed below) must be submitted through the online course at the Idaho Training Clearinghouse LMS.

Quizzes

All quizzes must be completed on the Idaho Training Clearinghouse Learning Management System by the date(s) specified on the course home page. Students must earn an 80% score on each quiz to pass the course. Quizzes can be retaken until passed.

Quiz 1 (20 points)

Quiz 2 (20 points)

Quiz 3 (20 points)

Quiz 4 (20 points)

Quiz 5 (20 points)
