Course Description

Session 1: Building Student Portfolios

This session will address essential self-determination practices and use the process of building students portfolios to increase self-awareness and helping students advocate for themselves.

Session 2: Goal Tracking Tools

This session will discuss various goal tracking tools and strategies for actively involving students in setting goals, self-evaluating their performances, and monitoring their progress.

Session 3: Leadership within the School Community

This session will address strategies for helping students experience increased positions of leadership in the school community. Participants will learn how all of these strategies can apply to students at various ages and across disabilities.

University of Idaho Learning Outcomes

1. Learn and integrate

Through independent learning and collaborative study, attain, use, and develop knowledge in the arts, humanities, sciences, and social sciences, with disciplinary specialization and the ability to integrate information across disciplines.

2. Think and create

Use multiple thinking strategies to examine real-world issues, explore creative avenues of expression, solve problems, and make consequential decisions.

3. Communicate

Acquire, articulate, create and convey intended meaning using verbal and non-verbal methods of communication that demonstrate respect and understanding in a complex society.

4. Clarify purpose and perspective

Explore one's life purpose and meaning through transformational experiences that foster an understanding of self, relationships, and diverse global perspectives.

5. Practice citizenship

Apply principles of ethical leadership, collaborative engagement, socially responsible behavior, respect for diversity in an interdependent world, and a service-oriented commitment to advance and sustain local and global communities.

Quiz 1 (20 points)

Quiz 2 (20 points)

Quiz 3 (20 points)

Final Assignment

Final Assignment (10 points)

Begin the process of designing an individualized student portfolio by:

- 1) Write a one page "handout" to share with families about the purpose, benefits, and decisions regarding the portfolio tool and important content for a student, and
- 2) Interview a student or a parent and begin documenting essential information: a student's important strengths, interests, preferences, motivators, needs, what works best, what doesn't work best, and what makes the student unique and special. Ask the student or parent how the portfolio tool would help educators get to know the student and how it might be used in a collaborative partnership with families and the school community.

Grading Policy

This is a Pass/Fail course.

1. Participants must earn an 80% score on each quiz to pass the course. Quizzes can be retaken until passed.

Academic Integrity

The University of Idaho has as one of its core values the ideal of academic honesty and integrity. University of Idaho students live and work in a collegiate community which emphasizes their responsibility for helping to determine and enforce appropriately high standards of academic conduct. The faculty of the University of Idaho expects all students to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty, and to refrain from any action which infringes upon academic freedom of other members of the academic community. Please refer to the University of Idaho - Student Code of Conduct Article II-Academic Honesty.

Condensed Policy of Nondiscrimination

The University of Idaho has a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, disability, or status as a Vietnam era veteran. This policy applies to all programs, services, and facilities, and includes, but is not limited to, applications, admissions, access to programs and services, and employment. Such discrimination is prohibited by titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, the Pregnancy Act of 1978, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act Amendments of 1978, the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, the Rehabilitation Act Reauthorization of 1992, and other state and federal laws and regulations.

Sexual harassment violates state and federal law and policies of the Board of Regents, and is expressly prohibited, see Faculty Staff Handbook: 3220. Retaliation for bringing forward a complaint is prohibited, see 3810.

Questions or concerns about the content and application of these laws, regulations or University policy may be directed to the Director, Human Rights Access and Inclusion (885-4285); Coordinator of Disabled Student Services (885-6307); Idaho Commission on Human Rights (208-334-2873); Regional Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Education in Seattle (206-220-7900); Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Seattle District Office (206-220-6883); or Seattle Regional Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, U.S. Department of Labor (206-398-8000). Complaints about discrimination or harassment should be brought to the attention of the Human Rights Compliance Office (885-4285 or hrai@uidaho.edu).
